The State, however failed to make out a case, and the Solicitor gave the matter up and the case was dismissed, Mr. Brewer, for whom great sympathy was felt, departed for his home on the same

On Friday afternoon the Court of Ses sions was adjourned. And Judge Meltoo dismissed the Juries-not retaining them for civil business this week.

On Monday morning, the Court began with Calender No. 2, putting aside Calder No. 1., which requires a jury. No business being ready, however, an adjournment was made until Tuesday morning. On Tuesday and Wednesday certain civil business was dispatched -not of interest to the general public. On Tuesday we were pleased to see at our bar one of the most distinguished members of the legal profession in South Carolina-Mr. Thompson, of Abbeville. Genl. Butler, of Columbia, and Major Baxter, of Newberry, have also been present for a short time during the session. Genl. Butler was to have returned this week, but is detained in Columbia by the Democratic Convention, to which he is a Delegate from Richland County. A pleasant feature of Tuesday morn-ing's session was the appearance in Court of our gifted and popular townsman, Thomas P. Magrath, Esq. This sound, able and experienced lawyer, though much confined to his office now-a-days by ill health, is as vigorous and trenchantas in his palmiest days. Many friends, who had not seen him for some time, were delighted to greet him on this occa-

And in this connection, we would refer to the bold, concise, truthful and conscientious Report of the Grand Jury, which we publish this week. A Sort of Kidnapping Case. On Tuesday last two little negro boys; Joe and Ezekiel, aged respectively about 12 and 14 years, were brought to our town by an officer of the law, who had taken them on writ of Habeas Corpus from the possession of John Gillion, Lampel Gillion and Lark Rodgers, citizens, if we mistake not, of the Mine Creek section. The mother, Kitty Jackson, lives on the plantation of Mr. G. M. Broadwater, and avers that the aforesaid persons took the children from the aforesaid plantation without her consent. She then went, and, getting hold of them, brought them back home. Subsequent ly, the Gillions and Rodgers again took them away forcibly. And now the mother has them on Habeas Corpus. We hear the boys hired themselves without the ragged and worse for wear. As we have heard it, the tale makes Rodgers and the Gilleons appear decidedly lawless and high-handed, and all good citizens will discountenance and disapprove of their who has been interviewed, says, "War-
